Dear Friends,

The Yearning for Learning Center for Jewish Studies is pleased to announce the beginning of our third year of Apples and Honey Hebrew School. We will begin this September 15, 2009 for children ages 6-12. We are very excited to share our vision with you and hope that you will decide to join us.

We hope that our school will be a place for children and families to experience the joys of being Jewish first-hand, with special family celebrations throughout the year, weekly classes consisting of music, art, drama, games, storytelling and more. During each session, we will learn to understand and speak Hebrew experientially in whatever we are doing.

The fee for the year will be $525 plus a $75 small materials fee, which includes at least 5 family celebrations throughout the year. Financial arrangements can be made to accommodate family needs.

Sample Schedule:

3:45-4:10 Snack (learning blessings in Hebrew and Hebrew phrases/story or teaching)
4:10-4:35 Musical Prayer Time (basic prayers will be taught through song, instruments and dance)
4:35-5:00 Hebrew writing, reading comprehension in level-appropriate groups
5:00-5:25 Torah learning through storytelling, movement, art and drama
5:25-5:30 Closing circle with Hebrew songs

If you would like to speak to me further about the curriculum, the calendar, the financial arrangements, or any other matter, please feel welcome to contact me at 223-0583 or info@yearning4learning.

Shalom u'vracha (peace and blessings),

Rabbi Tobie Weisman
