September 14, 2010

Dear Friends,

The Yearning for Learning Center for Jewish Studies is pleased to announce the start of Apples and Honey Hebrew School, beginning this September 14, 2010 for children ages 5-11. We are very excited to share our vision with you and hope that you will decide to join us. We hope that our new school will be a place for children and families to experience the joys of being Jewish first-hand, with special family celebrations throughout the year, weekly classes consisting of music, art, drama, games, storytelling and more. During each session, we will learn to understand and speak Hebrew experientially in whatever we are doing. I have included a sample schedule of the afternoon, which will be flexible depending on input we receive from families.

The fee for the year will be $525 plus $75 for books and materials and 5 family celebrations throughout the year where parents and siblings are invited to attend. Financial arrangements can be made to accommodate family needs.

Sample Schedule:

- 3:30-3:45 Snack (learning blessings in Hebrew and Hebrew phrases)
- 3:45-4:15 Musical Prayer Time (basic prayers will be taught through song, instruments and dance. Tapes made to bring home)
- 4:15-4:45 Hebrew writing, reading comprehension through learning about Shabbat & Jewish Holidays and Jewish themes
- 4:45-5:15 Torah learning through storytelling, movement, art and drama
- 5:15-5:30 Closing circle with Hebrew songs

If you would like to speak to me further about the curriculum, the calendar, the financial arrangements, or any other matter, please feel welcome to contact me at 223-0583 or rebtobie@verizon.net.

Shalom u'vracha (peace and blessings),

Rabbi Tobie Weisman
